

JOHN SLAVEN.

DECEMBER 21, 1831.

Mr. HUBBARD, from the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of John Slaven, report:

That the petitioner served three years and more in the army of the revolution, and was placed upon the pension list, and afterwards stricken therefrom on account of his property. He is now seventy years of age, and has a wife. Both of them are disabled and helpless. His property consists of ninety-six acres of land upon the Alleghany mountains, in Virginia, which is unsaleable and unproductive, and of uncertain but no great value. The committee give him a pension, and report a bill at the rate of $8 a month.
